13th Dec, 2023.

Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I would like to draw the attention of concerned authorities and general public towards the increasing garbage dirt in our city. In our city garbage is dumped on the roads. It is very dangerous for the residents of Merrut. There is no proper functioning of the municipality corporation. This dirt garbage and all those flies which wander around the garbage may lead to several major issues like getting ill.

It can also be serious. Our city is in a very bad condition. So, I wish that you would take a stern action on the municipality in our city so that it will become much more cleaner.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

X.Y.Z.

Question: What did Gandhiji do for Champaran?

Answer: The study of the lesson "Indigo" written by 'Louis Fischer' Gandhiji came to know about the sharecroppers' plight of Champaran. There the landlords forced the peasants to plant Indigo on 15% of the holdings and all the harvest was to be surrendered to the planters as rent.

They were also signing contracts for the compensation under compulsion. Gandhiji held a demonstration against the Government. The officials became helpless. A settlement was reached. The sharecroppers got 25% of their money back. In this way Gandhiji helped the peasants of Champaran.

Gandhiji accepted the notice by signing it and wrote on it that he would not obey the order. He was even willing to court arrest for the cause of the peasant. After four rounds of talks with the Governor, an official commission of inquiry was appointed in which Gandhiji was made the sole representative of the peasants.
